When an application has been filed in the office of the town clerk, it is the duty of the clerk to promptly publish, once a week for four consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in the town and also display conspicuously on the premises which the applicant desires to use as the place of sale, a notice that such applicant has made application for a license and that protests against the issuance of a license to the applicant will be heard at a time stated in the notice, which shall be at a special or regular meeting of the governing body. Notice may be substantially in the following form:

Upon approval of the governing body, the license may be renewed on different premises on the same basis as an original application, except for the payment of the license fee, which renewed license shall expire as of the date as the original license. The owner of such license, by an actual bona fide sale to be made in good faith, may, if proceedings are not pending to suspend, revoke or otherwise penalize the license holder, assign and transfer such license and the assignee or transferee thereof, subject to the conditions and approval hereinafter stated, may exercise the privilege of continuing the business authorized by such license, without the payment of any additional license fee, until the expiration of the same, upon the express condition, however, that such assignee or transferee shall first make and file a sworn application showing the qualifications of such person or assignee or transferee to take and hold a retail liquor license as required by Section 5.08.100 and subject to the approval of the governing body; provided, that the governing body shall notify in writing the Wyoming liquor commission at least ten days prior to approval of such transfer or sale.

Upon the expiration of any license the owner and holder thereof shall have a preference right to a new license for the same location, if such license may be granted under this chapter and application therefor conforming with requirements of Section 5.08.140 shows that such licensee is otherwise qualified to receive such new license.

B. To be Promptly Considered; Publication of Notice. Each application claiming renewal preference shall be promptly considered and decided by the governing body after publication or other notice provided by Section 5.08.150.
